22.03.2021: After hearing Mr. Sumesh Dhawan, learned counsel for the Appellant and Mr. Anirban Bhattacharya, learned counsel for the Liquidator, we find that despite the direction of this Appellate Tribunal passed on 16th December, 2020 in Company Appeal (AT) (Insolvency) No. 944 of 2020 modifying the order impugned therein, by providing that the Adjudicating Authority will enquire into the alleged deeds in accordance with law with expedition preferably within two months, the matter is still hanging fire. We are told that there is huge delay in as-much-as the matter is pending consideration since October, 2019. We are aware of the fact that due to variety of reasons including the heavy pendency before the Adjudicating Authorities and acute shortage of the human resource component at the level of Presiding Officers of National Company Law Tribunals, delay is practically unavoidable.

In the given circumstances, we request the Adjudicating Authority to accord priority to this matter and make all endeavours for its expeditious disposal within one month.

Copy of this order be communicated to the Adjudicating Authority (National Company Law Tribunal) New Delhi Bench, Court II.
